

European Energy Journal

8

Volume 3 | Issue 3 | July 2013

The third internal market package and its implications for electricity and gas infrastructure | 14

I. Bernaerts analyzes the 60 Commission Opinions on unbundling, 3 Decisions on exemptions from third party access rules, and the ongoing drafting of the various network codes

Regulating building refurbishment in the context of the Energy Roadmap 2050 | 34

L. Meuus, P. Kaderják, I. Azevedo, P. Kotek, Z. Pató, L. Szabó and J.M. Glachant discuss why and how to regulate the expected investments, and the EU's role as a facilitator of national solutions

Focus on Croatia | 39

M. Krejči displays the attractive portfolio of energy investment opportunities
G. Majstrovic and L. Prelec offer an assessment on RES targets and power system development
D. Kovačević and D. Simeunović look at project opportunities and challenges for wind power
E. Banovac welcomes the strengthened role of the Croatian Energy Regulatory Agency

Guarantees of origin and green electricity certificates in Flanders and in Sweden | 72

Starting from the Advocate General's recent opinion, D. Fouquet and J. V. Nysten argue that European law does not require Member States to open their national support schemes to foreign producers

Russia's gas policies in the light of new realities | 80

A. Belyi describes Russian attempts to improve both domestic and export competitiveness without hindering the vertically integrated structure of Gazprom

Law making	State of play and perspectives of the negotiations in the European institutions on pending and forthcoming legislative proposals	3
Case law	ECJ fosters citizens' rights concerning preventive transparency of gas supply contracts (C-92/11) and tax deductions for private solar panels (C-219/12)	7
Book reviews	Musialski/Altmann/Lechtenböhmer/Zittel , Shale gas in Europe – A multidisciplinary analysis with a focus on European specificities	12
Country reports	France : New wind is blowing from offshore parks; Finland : Legislative reforms relating to renewable energy, electricity distribution, and foreign acquisitions; Greenland : Licences for exploitation of mineral resources	90
On the scene	Dobro došli, Hrvatska!	103